by the deposit of such bonds with either of the Trustees. The fact and date of the execution by any person of any such request or other instrument may also be proven by the certificate of any notary public or other officer in the United States or elsewhere authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds, that the persons signing such request or other instrument acknowledged to him the execution thereof.

Article XIV.

The Trustees accept the trust hereby created, and agree to execute the same upon the following terms and conditions, to which the parties hereto mutually agree:

Neither of the Trustees shall be responsible for any loss or damage occurring through any act, neglect or default of the other.

The Trustees may employ or advise with legal counsel, and the proper expense thereof, and all personal expenses of the Trustees about the discharge of the trusts herein, and all other reasonable and proper charges and expenses of the Trustees including their compensation or remuneration, shall be paid by the Company, its successors and assigns, as they are incurred, or otherwise out of the trust estate on which they are hereby charged. The Trustees may employ agents or attorneys in fact; and, provided that they shall have exercised reasonable prudence in the selection and employment of such agent or agents, they shall not be responsible for loss or damages in the premises caused by the act, neglect or default of such agent or agents.

The compensation or remuneration to be paid to the Trustees respectively shall, as from the first day of February, 1893, be as follows, that is to say: Until this security shall become enforceable and be enforced, the sum of two hundred dollars per annum to The Northern Trust Company of Illinois, and its successors in the trust. And after this security shall have become enforceable, and be enforced, not only the annual sum aforesaid, but also such additional sums respectively as shall, in view of the sum aforesaid, be a fair extra remuneration and compensation to the Trustees respectively for the extra trouble and risk thereby thrown upon and incurred by them. All sums payable for remuneration or compensation hereunder shall be payable half-yearly on the first day of February and the first day of August in each year, the first such payment to be made on the first day of August, 1893.

The Company, its successors and assigns, shall and will indemnify and save harmless the Trustees and their successors in the trust against any loss and damage to which they may be subjected by the execution of this trust, not caused by the personal misconduct or neglect of the Trustees or their successors in the trust.

It shall not be obligatory on the Trustees to see to the record hereof, and neither of them shall incur any liability whatever for any failure or omission to record this indenture.

All recitals, statements of fact and representations herein contained are made by the Company or on its behalf, and the Trustees assume no responsibility as to the correctness of any recitals, statements of fact or representations herein contained.

The Trustees, respectively, shall be liable only for gross negligence or wilful and
