

ever. This Grant is intended as a Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Two hundred and twenty five Dollars, according to the terms of one certain promissory note this day executed by the said Ann E. Brown to the said party of the second part. Said note being given for the sum of Two hundred and twenty five Dollars, dated November 17 1894 due and payable on or before three years from date thereof with interest thereon from the date thereof and in installments until paid according to the terms of said note. And this conveyance shall be void if such payment be made as in said note, and as is hereinafter specified. And the said party of the first part hereby agrees to pay all taxes assessed on said premises before any penalties or costs shall accrue on account thereof, and to keep the said premises insured in favor of said mortgagee, in the sum of Three hundred Dollars, in some insurance company satisfactory to said mortgagee, in default whereof the said mortgagee may pay the taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insure the same at the expense of the party of the first part, and the expense of such taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insurance, shall from the payment thereof be and become an additional lien under this mortgage upon the above described premises, and shall bear interest at the rate of 10 percent. per annum. But if default be made in such payment or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes assessed on said premises, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole principal of said note, and interest thereon, and all taxes and accruing penalties and interest and costs thereon remaining unpaid or which may have been paid by the party of the second part and all sums paid by the party of the second part for insurance, shall be due and payable or not, at the option of the party of the second part; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part her executors and administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby waived or not at the option of the party of the second part, her executors, administrators or assigns; and out of all the money arising from such sale to retain the amount then due or to become due according to the conditions of this instrument, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand, to the said Ann E. Brown her heirs and assigns.

In testimony Whereof, The said party of the first part, has hereunto set her hand and seal the day and year last above written.
