

To Have and to Hold the same, Together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances therunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, forever.

Provided, Always, And these presents are upon this express condition, that whereas said Susan A. Tutcher and Thomas H. Tutcher have this day executed and delivered one certain promissory note in writing to said party of the second part, of which the following is a copy.

#1450

Richland Kansas Jan 11, 1895

Five years after date I we or either of us promise to pay David Neese or order Fourteen Hundred Fifty <sup>00</sup>/<sub>100</sub> Dollars at Neese Brothers Bank, Richland Kansas, for value received with interest at eight per cent per annum from date until paid interest payable annually.

Now, If said part of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said part of the second part, heirs or assigns, said sum of money in the above-described note mentioned, together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of the same, then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void, and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum or sums of money, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due, and if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are or may be assessed and levied against said premises, or any part thereof, are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable, then the whole of said sum and sums and interest thereon, shall, and by these presents, become due and payable, and said parties of the second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises. In Witness Whereof, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands, the day and year first above written.
