

shall cease and be null and void. But in case of the non-payment of any sum of money (either of principal, interest, insurance money, taxes, assessments or lien claims), at the time or times when the same shall become due, agreeably to the terms and conditions of these presents, or of the aforesaid bond, or any part thereof, then, in such case, the whole amount of said principal sum shall, at the option of the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, be deemed to have become due and payable, without any notice whatever (notice of such option being hereby expressly waived); and the same, together with all sums of money which may be paid by said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, for or on account of insurance, taxes, assessments, lien claims or prior liens, with interest thereon at the rate aforesaid, shall thereupon be collectible in a suit at law, or by foreclosure of this mortgage, in the same manner as if the whole of said principal sum had been made payable at the time when any such failure in any payment shall occur, as aforesaid, and the judgment or decree in the suit brought to foreclose the same shall embrace, with said principal debt and interest, all sums so paid for or on account of insurance, taxes, assessments, lien claims or prior liens, and officers' fees and expenses on account thereof, with interest at the rate aforesaid; and it shall be lawful in such case for the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, to grant, sell, and convey the said real estate, with the appurtenances therunto belonging, at public auction or vendue; and on such sale to make and execute to the purchaser or purchasers, his, her, or their heirs and assigns forever, good and sufficient deeds of conveyance in the law, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided. And in case suit shall be brought for the foreclosure of this mortgage, the said party of the first part, for himself, his heirs, representatives and assigns, covenants and agrees that he will pay to the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, all expenses incurred in procuring and continuing abstracts of title for the purposes of the foreclosure suit, and will pay, in addition to the taxable costs in such suit, an adequate and reasonable sum as a solicitor's ^{or attorney's} fee, the amount thereof to be fixed by the Court, and to be included, with the expenses for abstracts above mentioned, in the judgment or decree.

The said party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees to perform the covenants and conditions of this mortgage, without any relief from any valuation or appraisement laws, and hereby expressly waives appraisement, and waives and releases all rights and benefits he has in said premises as a homestead under any act relating to the alienation and exemption of homesteads.

In Witness Whereof, The said party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and seal, the day and year first above written.
