

thereof, and to keep the said premises insured in favor of the said mortgage, in the sum of Seven Hundred Dollars, in some insurance company satisfactory to said mortgage, in default whereof the said mortgage, may pay the taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insure the same at the expense of the party of the first part, and the expense of such taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insurance, shall from the payment thereof be and become an additional lien under this mortgage upon the above described premises, and shall bear interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum. But if default be made in such payment, or any part thereof or interest thereon, or the taxes assessed on said premises, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole principal of said note, and interest thereon, and all taxes and accruing penalties and interest and costs thereon, remaining unpaid or which may have been paid by the party of the second part, and all sums paid by the party of the second part for insurance, shall be due and payable or not, at the option of the party of the second part, and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part, her executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby not waived at the option of the party of the second part, her executors, administrators or assigns; and out of all the moneys arising from such sale to retain the amount then due or to become due according to the conditions of this instrument, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus if any, there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand to the said H. H. Howard his heirs and assigns.

In testimony whereof, the said party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
