

State of Nebraska,
Office of Secretary of State.

I, Th. P. Porter, Secretary of State, of the State of Nebraska do hereby certify that George H. Corey — before whom the foregoing acknowledgment was taken, was at the time of taking such acknowledgment — a Commissioner for Nebraska Resident in the City of New York, State of New York — an officer duly authorized by the laws of this State to take the same that I have compared the Signature therunto annexed with the signature of said — Geo. H. Corey — on Record in this office, and that I have also compared the impression of the Seal of said — George H. Corey — with the impression of his Official Seal also on Record in this office and truly believe that the signature and the impression of the seal annexed to said — First Mortgage — are genuine. In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska Done at Lincoln, this — 31st — day of January in the year of our Lord, One Thousand and Eight Hundred and Ninety — 8 — of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and — 22nd — and of this State the — 31st.

Th. P. Porter

Secretary of State.

B. C. Hume

Deputy.

State of New York,
City and County of New York. } ss.:

Be it remembered that on the 25th day of January, 1898, before me, Edward Van Ingen, a Notary Public of the State of New York in and for the City and County of New York aforesaid, duly qualified and sworn, personally came Horace C. Burt, to me personally known and known to me to be the President of Union Pacific Railroad Company, the corporation described in and which executed the foregoing instrument as party of the first part thereof, and Alexander Willar, to me personally known and known to me to be the Secretary of said Union Pacific Railroad Company; and the said Horace C. Burt and Alexander Willar being by me severally duly sworn did severally depose and say that the said Horace C. Burt resided in the City of Omaha, State of Nebraska, and the said Alexander Willar resided in Hyde Park, State of Massachusetts; that the said Horace C. Burt is the President and the said Alexander Willar is the Secretary of Union Pacific Railroad Company the corporation described in
