

do further covenant to keep all buildings, fences and other improvements on said premises in as good repair and condition as the same are in at this date, and abstain from the commission of waste on said premises. And the said party of the first part do further covenant that if default be made in the payment of any interest coupon hereby secured, or in case of failure to perform any of the covenants herein contained, the whole sum of money hereby secured, including all moneys paid by the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, by virtue of any provision hereof, shall, at the option of the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns become at once due and payable, without notice, and suit may be brought for the collection thereof, and for the foreclosure of this mortgage; and the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, shall thereupon be entitled to the immediate possession of said premises and of the rents, issues and profits thereof; and if judgment be rendered for foreclosure, it shall be that the whole of the said premises be sold together and not in parcels. In Witness Whereof, the said party of the first part have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written

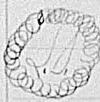

Signed in the presence of }

Not. Stamps
75^c

Howard D. Sheppard
Susie O. Sheppard

State of Kansas } ss.
County of Franklin }

On this Second day of February A.D. 1899 before me, a Notary Public in and for said County, personally appeared Howard D. Sheppard and Susie O. Sheppard, his wife, to me personally known to be the identical persons described in and who executed the foregoing instrument as grantors, and acknowledged that they executed the same as their voluntary act and deed for the uses and purposes therein expressed. Witness my hand and official seal, the day and year last above written.

My term of office expires Nov. 14th 1900

D. J. Gregory

Notary Public of said County

Recorded February 3rd 1899 at 9th O'Clock A.M.

H. H. Soxman
Register of Deeds

Four wavy lines, likely representing a signature or a decorative flourish.