This indenture made on the 2nd day of October, 1899, between The Kansas City, Lawrence & Topeka Railway Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Kansas, having its Chief office at Kansas City, in said State, (hereinafter called the "Railway Company") party of the first part, and the Colonial Trust Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, Mortgagee and Trustee (hereinafter called the "Trustee,") party of the second part: Whereas The Railway Company is the owner of the line of railroad and other property and franchises hereinafter particularly described, and being desirous of borrowing money for the completion and equipment of said railroad and for the making of additions and extensions thereto, and for the funding of its floating debts, did on the 25th day of September, 1899 resolve that the officers of said Company be authorized and directed to borrow sums of money not exceeding in the aggregate fifteen hundred thousand ($1500,000) dollars, and issue and dispose of its bonds for that amount, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchises hereinafter described, to secure the payment of said bonds and debts contracted by said Company for the purposes aforesaid, said bonds to be subject to registration, and to be issued free of all United States, State and municipal taxes, and to bear date the 2nd day of October, 1899, and to be payable on the first day of October 1949, bearing interest at five per cent per annum from October first 1899, payable semi-annually, said bonds and interest coupons to be substantially of the following tenor: No ——— United States of America. State of Kansas. The Kansas City, Lawrence & Topeka Railway Company. First Mortgage, Five Per cent. Gold Bond, Due October 1, 1949. The Kansas City, Lawrence & Topeka Railway Company, a corporation created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Kansas, for value received, promises to pay to the Colonial Trust Company of New York, a corporation duly created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York, or bearer, or, if registered as hereinafter provided, to the registered owner hereof, one thousand dollars in gold coin of the United State of the present standard of weight and fineness, at the office of the Colonial Trust Company in the City of New York, on the first day of October, 1949, and to pay interest on such principal sum, free of all United States, State and municipal taxes, required by any present or future laws, to be deducted from said principal or interest, at the rate of five per cent, per annum, from the first day of October, 1899, until such principal sum shall be paid, such interest being payable on the first days of April and October in each year in like gold coin, in said City of New York, on presentation and surrender of the annexed coupons at the office of said Colonial Trust Company. This bond is one of a series of bonds of the Railway Company of the like tenor, amounting in the aggregate to fifteen hundred thousand ($1500,000) dollars, the payment of