Register of Deeds

By C. W. Armstrong, President,
 The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, contained; then this mortgage to be void, and to be released at the expense of said party of the first part, or otherwise to remain in full force and effect. And the said party of the first part do hereby covenant and agree to pay, or cause to be paid, the principal sum and interest above specified, in manner aforesaid, together with all costs and expenses of collection, if any there shall be, and any costs, charges or Attorney's fees incurred and paid by the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, in maintaining the priority of this mortgage. And the said party of the first part do further covenant and agree, until the debt hereby secured is fully satisfied, to pay all legal taxes and assessments levied, under the laws of the state of Kansas, on said premises, or on this mortgage, or on the note or debt hereby secured, before any penalty for nonpayment attaches thereto; also to abstain from the commission of waste on said premises, and keep the buildings thereon in good repair and insured to the amount of $1000 in insurance companies acceptable to the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, and assign and deliver to it or them all policies of insurance on said buildings, and the renewals thereof, and in case of failure to do so the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, may pay such taxes and assessments, make such repairs, or effect such insurance, and the amount paid therefor, with interest thereon, from the date of payment, at the rate of two per cent, per annum, shall be collectible with, as part of, and in the same manner as, the principal sum hereby secured. And the said party of the first part do further covenant and agree that in case of default in payment of any installment of interest or in the performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained, then, or at any time thereafter during the continuance of such default, the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, may, without notice, declare the entire debt hereby secured immediately due and payable, and thereupon, or in case of default in payment of said promissory note at maturity, the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, shall be entitled to the immediate possession of said premises, and may proceed to foreclose this mortgage, and in case of foreclosure, the judgment rendered shall provide that the whole of said premises be sold together and not in parcels. In witness whereof, the said party of the first part have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.
