

money in the above described note mentioned, together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of said note and coupons, then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void; and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum of money, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due, or if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are or may be assessed and levied against said premises or any part thereof are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable, or if insurance as agreed is not procured and kept in force, then the whole of said sum and sums, and interest thereon, shall, without notice, and by these presents, become due and payable at the sole option of the holder hereof, and said party of the second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises. In witness whereof, the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.
