after eighteen months. And this conveyance shall be void if such payment be made as is herein specified. But if default be made in such payment, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or if the taxes on said land are not paid when the same become due and payable, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon as provided herein, or if the buildings are not kept in good repair, or if the improvements are not kept in good condition, or if waste is committed on said premises, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole sum remaining unpaid shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the holder thereof; and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to take possession of the said premises and all the improvements thereon, and receive the rents, issues and profits thereof, and to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of all moneys arising from such sale, to retain the amount then unpaid of principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the surplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand, to the said John Black or his heirs and assigns. In witness whereof, the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year last above written.
