

Christian Beatz and Henriette Beatz as evidenced by one certain Bond No. eighty six hundred and forty one of One Hundred and fifty Dollars of our date hereunder and by which said bond the party of the first part promise to pay to the order of J. B. Watkins in lawful money of the United States of America the principal sum of One Hundred and fifty Dollars three years after date thereof with interest thereon at the rate of seven per centum per annum interest payable semi-annually according to and upon presentation of interest coupons therefor thereunto attached both principal and interest-bearing payable at the National Bank of Commerce in New York City. Also Providing that in case any interest on any of said sums shall remain unpaid for ten days after the same becomes due then the entire sum covered by said bond and secured by this mortgage deed to become immediately due and payable without any notice of any kind whatever and same to be collected in like manner as if the full time provided in said bond had expired.

It is further expressly agreed that the first party shall at all times keep the taxes and assessments of any and all kinds that may become liens upon said premises fully paid and satisfied and that said security shall remain and be kept as good as the same is now during the continuance of this loan.

It is further agreed that the first party shall repay to the second party all and every such sum or sums of money as may have been paid by them or any of them for taxes or assessments or for premiums and costs of insurance or on account of or to extinguish or remove any prior or outstanding title lien claim or incumbrance on the premises hereby conveyed with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the time the said sum or sums of money may have been respectively so advanced and paid until the same are repaid and all of which said sum or sums of money and the interest to accrue thereon shall also be a charge upon said premises and shall be secured by this instrument in the same
