

by the bondholders, shall immediately and without further act supersede any Trustee appointed by the Telephone Company.

And new Trustee so appointed hereunder, shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the predecessor Trustee, last in office, an instrument accepting such appointment hereunder, and thereupon such new Trustee shall become vested with all the property, rights, duties, and trusts, of a Trustee hereunder, with like effect as if named Trustee herein, and without any further act, deed or conveyance; but the Trustee ceasing to act shall, nevertheless, on the written request of the new Trustee, execute an instrument transferring to such new Trustee upon the trusts herein expressed all the property, rights and privileges hereunder of the Trustee so resigning or removed.

It is understood and agreed that the word "Trustee" as used in this instrument shall be held and construed to mean the party of the second part, or its successor or successors for the time being in the trust hereby created, and that the words "Telephone Company," shall be held and construed as including the lawful successors and assigns of said Telephone Company, being the business for the time being of the premises hereby mortgaged and conveyed. The party of the second part signifies its acceptance of the trusts hereby created by joining in the execution of this indenture.
