as such Trustee the certificate of the Company under its corporate seal attested by the signature of its President and the affidavit of its Secretary shall be conclusive evidence of such fact to protect the Trustee in any action that it may take by reason of the supposed existence of such facts.

The Trustee shall be in nowise answerable for or concerning the validity of these presents or of bonds issued hereunder or any recital therein or herein contained nor shall it be incumbent upon the Trustee to enter into possession of the hereby granted premises otherwise than through or by means of a receiver duly appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction or without the aid of such court to exercise any of the powers hereinbefore conferred concerning such possession or sale of the said premises.

Article Fourteen.

Except as provided in Articles Seventh and Eleventh the Trustee shall not require the deposit or production of any bonds as a condition precedent to its taking action as herein provided for on the requisition of bondholders but it may require the affidavit or affidavits from the holders of the bonds setting forth the number and amount denomination and serial numbers of said bonds held by all of the parties thereto respectively.

Article Fifteenth.

This indenture further witnesseth that although two or more copies or counterparts hereof are simultaneously executed by the Company in pursuance of the aforesaid resolutions of the said Company and delivered to the Trustee and the said Trustee in evidence of its acceptance of the trusts created has likewise duly executed said two or more copies or counterparts all of said copies or counterparts so executed and delivered each as an original shall constitute one and the same instrument.

In Testimony Whereof The Lawrence Water Company party of the first part has caused its corporate name to be hereunto signed by its President and