

belonging to the said Northern Trunk Line No. 2. Together with all pumping stations, pumps, boilers, engines, reducers, meters, appliances, fittings, fixtures, and machinery of all kinds and nature connected with or belonging to the said trunk, branch and field lines. Together, also, with all rights of way easements, privileges and grants upon which the said trunk, field and branch lines are laid and maintained or may hereafter be laid and maintained. Together, also, with all lots or pieces of land upon which are maintained pumping, regulating or reducing stations connected with, belonging to or used in connection with the said trunk and field lines.

Excepting And Reserving out of and from this conveyance Trunk Line No. 1, being a sixteen inch steel rubber pecker coupling line running parallel with Trunk Line No. 2, and lying east thereof and extending through to Kansas City, Missouri, and also so much of the rights of way upon which said Trunk Line No. 1 is now laid and maintained as will be embraced within two lines drawn parallel with each other and running eighteen inches distant east and west from the center line of the said Trunk Line No. 1, and also all pumping stations belonging to said Trunk Line No. 1, and all pumps, boilers, engines, reducers, meters, appliances, fittings, fixtures, and machinery of all kinds and nature connected with or belonging or appurtenant to such pumping stations, and also the land upon which the same may be built or constructed. It is hereby granted and conveyed or intended so to be, with the appurtenances unto the said Gas Company, its successors and assigns forever.