Lottie Hastings

The State of Indiana, Clinton County, SS. Before me, a Notary Public in and for said County and state, personally came Lottie Hastings, who acknowledged that she did sign the foregoing transfer of note and mortgage, and that the same is her free act and deed for the purposes intended.

(SEAL) O. E. Brumbaugh, Notary Public, Clinton county, Indiana.

The State of Indiana, Clinton County, SS. Lottie Hastings, the within mortgagee, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says, that the note secured by the mortgage to which this affidavit is attached, and which said note is assigned by the above instrument of writing, is not in her possession and has been lost or destroyed; that said note was dated April 11th, 1910, for the sum of $1250.00 due on or before 5 years from date, bearing 7% interest payable semi-annually on the 11th day of October and April and signed by said Wm. F. Davis and Mary E. Davis as makers; that this affiant has not disposed of said note, nor had any one dispose of it for her; that she has not sold, given away, indorsed, transferred or assigned said note, nor hypothecated or deposited the same as security in any manner whatsoever; that said note was lost or destroyed without her knowledge or consent and until this date she was the absolute owner of said note until assigned by the above instrument of writing to the said Wm. F. Davis; that said affiant has full power and authority to make said assignment of said note as above set out and that the purchaser of the same Wm. F. Davis, has paid the full value thereof. And further this affiant saith not.

Lottie Hastings
