To secure the said party of the second part, its assigns or successors, for an actual loan of money made to the said party of the first part, as evidence by one certain Bond No. 2791 of even date herewith, in and by which said bond the party of the first part promises to pay to the order of the said party of the second part, its assigns or successors, in lawful money of the United States of America, the principal sum of Three Thousand and no Dollars, on June 1st 1919 with interest at the rate of Seven per cent, per annum from June 1st 1917 until maturity and Eight per cent, per annum after maturity or default, interest payable semi-annually according to interest coupons therefor thereto attached, both principal and interest being payable at the office of THE MERCHANTS NATIONAL BANK, Lawrence, Kansas, and also promise and agree that in case any interest on any of said sums shall remain unpaid after the same becomes due, then the entire sums covered by this bond and secured by this Mortgage Deed, to become immediately due and payable at option of mortgagee, without any notice of any kind whatsoever, and same to be collected in like manner as if the full time provided in said bond had expired.
