*James H. v. Savings Bank
Geo. P. Wicks Pres.
B. M. Young Cashier*

according to the tenor and effect of a certain promissory note, and six coupon interest notes thereto attached bearing even date herewith, executed by said parties of the first part and payable to the party of the second part or its order at the office of said Company, in Lawrence, Kansas, or such other place as the legal holder of the principal note may in writing designate, which note represents a just indebtedness and an actual loan from the party of the second part to the parties of the first part; and shall perform all and singular the covenants herein contained; then this mortgage to be void, and to be released at the expense of the said parties of the first part, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

And the said parties of the first part do hereby covenant and agree to pay, or cause to be paid, the principal sum and interest above specified, in manner aforesaid, together with all costs and expenses of collection, if any there shall be, and any costs, incurred and paid by the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, in maintaining the priority of this mortgage; that the said party of the second part may make any payments necessary to remove or extinguish any prior or outstanding title, lien or incumbrance on the premises hereby conveyed, and any sums so paid shall become a lien upon the above described real estate and be secured by this mortgage, and may be recovered with interest at ten per cent in any suit to foreclose this mortgage.

And the said parties of the first part hereby further covenant and agree to pay pay all taxes, general or special, which may be assessed upon said land, premises or property; also to abstain from the commission of waste on said premises, and keep the buildings in good repair and insured to the amount of $..... in insurance companies acceptable to the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, and to assign and deliver to it or them all policies of insurance on said buildings, and the renewals thereof; and in case of failure to do so, the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, may pay such taxes and assessments, make such repairs, or effect such insurance, and the amounts paid therefore, with interest thereon from the date of ten per cent per annum, shall be collectible with, as a part of, and in the same manner as the principal sum hereby secured.

And the said parties of the first part do further covenant and agree that in case of default in payment of any installment of interest, or in the performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained, then, or at any time thereafter during the continuance of such default, the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, may, without notice, declare the entire debt hereby secured immediately due and payable, and thereupon, or in case of default in payment of said promissory note at maturity, the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, shall be entitled to the immediate possession of said premises, by receiver or otherwise, as it may elect, and to the subsequent rents and profits of said premises, which are hereby pledged to the legal holder hereof as additional and collateral security for the payment of all monies mentioned herein, and may proceed to foreclose this mortgage; and in case of foreclosure, the judgment rendered shall provide that the whole of said premises be sold together and not in parcels.

In witness whereof, the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.
