Section 4. In case any one of the events of default shall happen, then and in such case unless the principal of the bonds shall already have become due and payable, the Corporate Rustee by notice in writing delivered to the Company, may, and upon written request of the nolders of twenty-five per cent. in amount of the bonds then outstanding, shall declare the principal of all the bonds then outstanding to be forthwith due and payable, and upon any such declaration the same shall become and be forthwith due and payable, anything in this in denture or in said bonds contained to the contrary notwithstanding. This provision, however, is subject to the condition that if, at any time after the principal of said bonds shall have been so declared due and payable, and before any sale of the trust estate or any part thereof shall have been made, all arrears of interest upon the bonds, with interest on overdue installments of interest at the same rate as was borne by the respective bonds on which installments of interest may be overdue together with the reasonable charges and ex-penses of the Trustees, their agents, and attorneys, shall either be paid by the Company or be collected out of the income of the trustestate and all other defaults under the bonds or under this indenture, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Trustees, then and in such case the holders of a majority in amount of the bonds then outstanding, by written notice to the Company and to the Corporate Trustee, may waive such default and its conseqpences; but no such waiver shall extend to be affect any subsequent default or impair any rit right consequent thereon.

Section 5. If one or more of the events of default shall happen, the Trustees, with or without entry, personally or by attorney, in their discretion, either (a) May sell, subject to the then prior existing liens thereon, to the highest

(a) May sell, subject to the then prior existing liens thereon, to the highest and best bidder, all and singular the trust estate, including bonds, stocks, rights, franchises, interests, and appurtenances, and other real and/or personal property of every kind, and all right, title and interest, claim and demand therein, and right of redemption thereo such sale or sales shall be made at public auction at such place in the City of New York, in the State of New York, or at such other vlace, and at such time or times and upon such terms as the Trustees may fix and briefly specify in the notice of sale to be given as here in provided, or as may be required by law; or

(b) May proceed to protect and to enforce their rights and the rights of the holders of the bonds, by a suit or suits in equity, or at law, whether for the specific; performance of any covenant or agreement contained herein, or in aid of the execution of any power herein granted, or for the foreclesure of this indenture, or for the enforcement of any other appropriate legal or equitable remedy, as the Trustees, being advised by counsel, shall deem most effectual to protect and enforce any of their rights or duties under this indenture or the rights of the holders of the bonds.

Section 6. Upon the written request of the holders of twenty-five per cent. in amount of the bonds then outstanding, it shall be the duty of the Trustees, in case one or more of the events of default shall happen, upon b eing indemnified as hereinafter provided, to take all steps needful for the protection and enforcement of their rights and the rights of the holders of the bonds, and to exercise the power of entry or of sale herein conferred, or of both, or to take appropriate judicial proceedings by action, suit or otherwise as the Trustees, to being advised by counsel, shall deem most expedient in the interest of the holders of the bonds.

Section 7. In the event of any sale herein granted or conferred, or or under or by virtue of judicial proceedings, the property constituting the trust estate shall be sold either in parcels or as an entirety, as the Trustees may elect or the court in which such proceedings are pending may direct, unless the holders of a majority in amount of the bonds then outstanding shall, in writing, request the Trustees to cause said property to be sold in a particular manner, in which case the sale shall be made either as an entirety or in such parcels and in such order as may be specified in such request, subject, however, in the case of a sale under judicial proceedings, to the approval of the court. The Company, for itself and all persons and corporations hereafter claiming through or under it or who may at any time hereafter become holders of liens junior to the lien of this indenture, hereby expressly maives all right to have the properties and estate comprised in the sacurity intended to be created by this indenture marshaled upon any forclosure or other enforcement hereof. Section 6. Notice of any sale pursuant to the provisions of this indenture shall state the time and place when and where the same is the be made, and shall contain a brief general description of the property, board on the sufficiently given if published once in each week for four successive weeks prior to sucn sale in a daily news paper of general circulation published in the City of New York, State of New York. Section 9.
