

mortgage shall be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law. It is further agreed, that if default shall be made in the payment of said sums of money, or any part thereof, as hereinbefore specified, or if the taxes, rates, insurance, liens, charges and dues assessed or charged on the above real estate shall remain unpaid for the space of six months after the same are due and payable, then the whole indebtedness, including the amount of all assessments, dues and fines on said stock, shall become due, and the said grantee or its successors may proceed by foreclosure, or any other lawful mode to collect the same, and said Grantee shall be entitled to the possession of said premises and of said property. But the Board of Directors of said Association may, at their option, pay or cause to be paid the said taxes, charges, insurance, rates, liens and assessments so due and payable, and charge them against said grantor, or assigns, and the amount so paid shall be a lien on said mortgaged premises until the same be paid, and may be included in any judgment rendered in any proceeding to foreclose this mortgage, but whether they elect to pay such taxes, insurance, charges, rates, liens and assessments, or not, it is distinctly understood that in all cases of delinquencies as above enumerated, then in like manner, the said note and the whole of said sum shall immediately become due and payable. Appraisement waived.

Witness our hands this 19th day of September 1924.
