

undesirable estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances.

This Grant is intended as a Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Twenty four Hundred Dollars with interest thereon at the rate of seven per centum per annum according to the terms of one certain promissory note this day executed and delivered by the said William Bane and payable on demand to the said party of the second part: and this conveyance shall be void if such payment be made as herein specified. But if default be made in such payment or any part thereof or interest thereon, or the taxes, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute and the whole shall become due and payable, and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part her executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part her executors, administrators or assigns, and out of all the moneys arising from such sale to retain the amount then due for principal and interest together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus if any there be shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand to the said party of the first part or her heirs or assigns.

In Witness Whereof, The said party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year last above written.
