

M. B. Pryor and Maggie Pryor his wife or their heirs executors or administrators shall fail to pay or cause to be paid to the said party of the second part or the legal holder of said note any of the principal sum payable thereby or any installment of interest thereon as the said principal and interest and each and every one of them shall become due and payable by the tenor and effect of said note or shall fail to repay to said party of the second part or to the legal holder of said note at the respective times when the principal sum payable thereby or any installment of interest thereon shall become due and payable as aforesaid all and every such sum or sums of money as may have been paid by them or any of them for taxes and assessments or for premiums and costs of insurance or on account of or to extinguish or remove any prior or outstanding titles liens claims or incumbrances on the premises hereby conveyed with the aforesaid interest thereon then and in that case this deed shall remain in full force and virtue and the said promissory note with the interest accrued thereon with costs of protest and protest damages as provided by law and all money which may have been advanced and paid by the said party of the second part or the legal holder of said note aforesaid with the aforesaid interest thereon shall thereupon each and every one of them become and be presently due and payable (and this mortgage may be immediately foreclosed) at the option of said party of the second part or the legal holder of said note and said party of the second part of the legal holder of said note shall become and be at once entitled to the possession of the above described premises and to have and receive all the rents and profits thereof. And in case of default in the payment of any interest coupon herein covenanted to be paid for the period of ten days after the same becomes due or in default of performance of any covenant herein contained the said party of the first part agree to pay to the party of the second part or his administrators or assigns interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum upon said principal sum of One Thousand Dollars from the time when the same was advanced and loaned by the party of the second part and interest shall be so computed and any payments made on account of interest shall be credited in said computation so that the total amount of interest collected shall be and not exceed the legal rate of twelve per cent. All appraisement and stay laws are hereby expressly