

Elmina E. Porter and Byron Porter to the said party of the second part: due one year after date at ten per interest after date and this conveyance shall be void if such payment be made as herein specified. But if default be made in such payment, or any part thereof or interest thereon or the taxes, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole shall become due and payable, and it shall be lawful for said party of the second part his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part his executors, administrators or assigns: and out of all the moneys arising from such sale, to retain the amount then due for principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the surplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand to the said party of the first part or their heirs and assigns.

In Witness Whereof, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year last above written.
