Recorded May 26th 1888

James Christie

It is Further Agreed, That the first party shall repay to the second party all and every such sum or sums of money as may have been paid by them or any of them, for taxes, or assessments, or for premiums and costs of insurance, or on account of, or to extinguish or remove any prior or outstanding title, lien, claim or incumbrances on the premises hereby conveyed, with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the time the said sum or sums of money may have been respectively so advanced and paid, until the same are repaid and all of which said sum or sums of money, and the interest to accrue thereon, shall also be a charge upon said premises, and shall be secured by this instrument in the same manner as the said principal sum payable by the said bond is secured thereon.

It is Further Agreed, That in case of default in the payment of said bond or any part thereof or any of the sums of money to become due herein specified, according to the tenor and effect of said bond or in case of the breach by the said party of the first part of any of the covenants or agreements herein mentioned by said first party to be performed thereon, and in that case, the bond secured hereby shall bear interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from date and this conveyance shall become absolute and the party of the second part be at once entitled to the possession of ^{the} said above described premises, and to have and receive all the rents and profits thereof. And the said bond with interest accrued thereon, and all moneys which may have been advanced and paid by the said second party, with the aforesaid interest thereon, shall thereupon, each and every one of them become and be at once due and payable.

And in case of the foreclosure of this mortgage party of the first part agree to pay ten per cent attorneys fees upon the amount to be recovered herein, said fee to be due and payable at filing petition for foreclosure. Appraisement hereby waived or not at the option of the said second party. The first party agree to pay the charges for entering satisfaction of this mortgage upon the records.
