KANSAS MORTGAGE

THIS MORTGAGE, made this First day of February A. D., 1932, between Charles McKaughen and Genelle McKaughen, his wife of Johnson County, and State of Kansas (the first party hereto); and FARM MORTGAGE HOLDING COMPANY, a Corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware, and having an office in Kansas City, County of Jackson, and State of Missouri, (the second party hereto);

WITNESSETH, That said first party, for and in consideration of the sum of Three Thousand and no/100 Dollars, in hand paid, by the party of the second part, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold, conveyed and confirmed and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, convey and confirm unto said second party, and to its successors and assigns forever, all of the following described real estate situate in the County of Douglas, and State of Kansas, to-wit:

The West Half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the Southeast Quarter (SE $\frac{1}{4}$ ), Section Thirteen (13), Township Fifteen (15), Range Twenty (20).

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same, together with all buildings and improvements now or at any time hereafter located thereon, with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, unto the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns forever.

All the persons together constituting said first party hereby jointly and severally covenant and agree with said second party that said first party is now lawfully seized in fee of said premises, and has good right to sell or convey the same and that same are free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, except as herein stated and that said first party will forever warrant and defend the same against all lawful claims of all persons whomsoever.

Provided always, and these presents are upon the express condition that whereas the said Charles McKaughen and Genelle McKaughen, his wife, (is or are) justly indebted unto said second party in the principal sum of Three Thousand and no/100 Dollars, for a loan thereof made by said second party to said first party, as evidenced by a certain promissory note of even date herewith, made, executed and delivered by first party, and payable to the order of said second party at its office in Kansas City, Missouri, in the principal sum of Three Thousand and no/100 Dollars, payable, $100.00 on the First day of February, 1933; 1934; 1935 and 1936 respectively, and the unpaid balance of $2,600.00 on the First day of February, 1937, and with privilege granted to pay $100.00 or any multiple thereof at any interest paying date, with interest from date at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the First day of August and February of each year.

Said note further provides that in case of default in the payment of any interest or principal when due or in the performance of any of the covenants or agreements contained in this mortgage, that then or at any time thereafter during the continuance of such default, the legal holder thereof may at his option, with or without notice, declare the whole debt, both principal and interest, immediately due and payable.

Now, if the said first party shall pay the aforesaid indebtedness, both principal and interest, according to the tenor of said note, as the same shall mature, and shall keep and perform all the covenants and agreements of this mortgage, then these presents shall be void and shall be released at the cost of the first party; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

All of the persons together constituting said first party hereby jointly and severally further covenant, promise and agree to end with said second party and the holder of said note, and each of them as follows, to-wit: (1) To pay on demand all taxes and assessments, general and special, now existing against said land and the improvements thereon, and to pay when due or within the time required by law all taxes and assessments, general and special, hereafter levied or charged thereon or therefor; and to pay when due the principal and interest and to perform all of the covenants and agreements contained in all prior mortgages, if any; and further to pay any recording fee or tax, or any tax or assessment or charge that may be levied, assessed against or required from the holder of said mortgage and note as a condition to maintaining or enforcing or enjoying the full benefit of the lien of this mortgage, or the collection of the said indebtedness; (2) To procure and keep in force, as long as any part of the indebtedness hereby secured shall remain unpaid, policies of insurance in companies at all times satisfactory to said second party, insuring the buildings which now or hereafter may be on said real estate, against loss by Fire and Lightning in the sum of at least Eighteen Hundred and no/100 Dollars, and against loss by Windstorms, Tornadoes and Cyclones in the sum of at least Eighteen Hundred and no/100 Dollars, and to assign and deliver all the policies representing said insurance to said second party, with standard non-contributory beneficiary clauses attached to said policies, making the loss thereunder, if any, payable to said second party, as additional security, with power to demand, and sole power to receive and collect any and all money becoming payable thereunder and to apply the same toward the payment of said note, unless otherwise paid, and in the event of foreclosure hereunder with power in said second party to assign to the purchaser at foreclosure sale the unexpired term of all such policies; (3) Not to suffer any lien superior to the lien hereby created to attach to or be enforced against said real estate, nor commit or permit waste of said real estate, nor allow any of the buildings thereon to become vacant or unoccupied; (4) To pay the principal and interest money hereby secured when and as the same shall become due and payable, without deduction for any taxes, rates or governmental charges upon the ownership of said second party, or upon the note or indebtedness secured hereby, shall be paid by said first party; (5) That said second party or its assign(s) may pay any and all taxes or assessments as in this mortgage provided, may redeem said real estate from tax or assessment sale, and remove all statutory or other liens therefrom, except such liens, if any, as are herein specifically excepted; (6) That, upon default by first party in the performance of any covenant or condition required to be performed by first party under the terms of this mortgage, or any prior mortgage, if any, (including effecting of insurance as herein provided, payment of any final judgment for any statutory lien against said property, including all costs, and payments of delinquent taxes or assessments as aforesaid) second party may perform any such covenant(s) or condition(s) so left unperformed by first party; and any money expended by second party in performing such covenant(s) or condition(s) left unperformed by first party as aforesaid, together with interest on such sums at the rate of eight per centum per annum, from the time of payment until paid, shall be an additional indebtedness secured by this mortgage; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as making it the duty of said second party or its assignee(s) to advance any money for such purposes or to perform such covenant(s) or condition(s) so left unperformed by first party; (7) That in case said second party or its successors or assigns, shall be made a party to any suit or proceedings at law or in equity affecting the title to, or possession of, the property hereinbefore described, the said second party, or its successors or assigns, shall be allowed and paid court costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees by it paid or expended in such suit or proceedings. And the same shall be a debt immediately due and payable, which debt is secured by this instrument the same as said note described herein; (8) That first party, for himself, his heirs, successors and assigns hereby
