PROVIDED, Always, and these presents are upon the following covenants and conditions, to-wit:

FIRST. That said parties of the first part are justly indebted to the said second party in the sum of Twelve Thousand and no/100 Dollars, according to the terms of a certain mortgage note or bond of even date herewith, executed by said parties of the first part, in consideration of the actual loan of the sum aforesaid, to the said second party, with interest thereon from December 30, 1937 until maturity, at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July in each year, according to the terms of said note; both principal and interest and all other indebtedness accruing hereunder, being payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at the office of THE SECURITY BENEFIT ASSOCIATION, in Topeka, Kansas, and all of said notes bearing ten per cent interest after due.

SECOND. FIFTH. In case of default of payment of any sum herein covenanted to be paid for the period of ten days after the same becomes due, the said first parties agree to pay to the said second party, or its assigns, interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum, computed annually on said principal note from the date of default, to the time when said principal and interest shall be fully paid; and in case of default of any of the covenants herein contained, the rents and the profits of the said premises are pledged to the legal holder or holders hereof as additional and collateral security for the payment of all moneys mentioned herein, and said legal holder shall be entitled to the possession of said property by a receiver or otherwise as it may elect. It is also agreed that the taking of possession shall in no manner prevent or retard the second party in the collection of said sums by foreclosure or otherwise.

SIXTH. If such payments be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void, and is to be released at the expense of said party of the second part; but if said principal or interest notes, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, be not paid according to the terms of said notes, or if said taxes or assessments be not paid as provided herein, or if default be made in the agreement to insure; or in the covenant against incumbrances, or any other covenant herein contained, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole of said principal and interest shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part, or assigns, and this mortgage may thereupon be foreclosed immediately for the whole of said money, interest and costs, without further notice.
