PROVIDED, Always, and these presents are upon the following agreements, covenants and conditions, to-wit:

FIRST. That the parties of the first part are justly indebted to the party of the second part in the sum of FOUR HUNDRED FIFTY DOLLARS according to the terms of one certain mortgage note of even date herewith, executed by said parties of the first part, in consideration of the actual loan of the said sum, and payable as follows: Forty Dollars ($40.00) February 1, 1938, and Forty Dollars ($40.00) on the first of each month thereafter until paid, to the order of the said party of the second part with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first days of January and July in each year, according to the terms of said note; both principal and interest and all other indebtedness accruing hereunder being payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at the Home Office of THE STANDARD LIFE ASSOCIATION, Lawrence, Kansas, or at such other place as the legal holder of the principal note may in writing designate, and said note bearing ten percent interest after maturity.

SECOND. That the parties of the first part agree to keep all fences, buildings and improvements on the said premises in as good repair as they are at the date hereof; to permit no waste of any kind; to keep all the buildings which are or may hereafter be upon the premises unceasingly insured to the amount of DOLLARS, in insurance companies acceptable to the party of the second part with policies payable to it in case of loss to the amount then secured by this mortgage; to assign and deliver to it, with satisfactory mortgagee clauses, all the policies of insurance on said buildings and to pay all insurance premiums when due. In case of loss it is agreed that the party of the second part may collect the insurance moneys or may deliver the policies to the said parties of the first part for collection. At the election of the said party of the second part, the insurance moneys shall be applied either on the indebtedness secured hereby or in rebuilding.

THIRD. That the party of the second part may make any payments necessary to remove or extinguish any prior or outstanding title, lien or incumbrance on the premises hereby conveyed, and may pay any unpaid taxes or assessments charged against said property, and may insure said property if default be made in the covenant to insure; and any sums so paid shall become a lien upon the above described real estate, and be secured by this mortgage, and may be recovered, with interest at ten per cent, in any suit for the foreclosure of this mortgage. In case of foreclosure it is agreed that the judgment rendered shall provide that the whole of said real estate shall be sold together and not in parcels.

FOURTH. That in case of default of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained, the rents and profits of the said premises are pledged to the party of the second part as additional and collateral security for the payment of all the indebtedness secured hereby, and the said party of the second part is entitled to the possession of said property, by receiver or otherwise, as it may elect.

FIFTH. That the parties of the first part hereby agree to pay all taxes and assessments, general or special, which may be assessed upon the said land, premises or property, or upon the interest of the party of the second part therein. The parties of the first part further agree not to suffer or permit all or any part of the taxes or assessments to become or remain delinquent, nor to permit the said property or any part thereof, or any interest therein, to be sold for taxes, and further agree to furnish annually to the party of the second part, on or before the tenth day of July the certificate of the proper authority, showing full payment of all such taxes and assessments.

SIXTH. That the parties hereto further agree that all the covenants and agreements of the parties of the first part herein contained shall extend to and bind their heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of the party of the second part, its successors and assigns.

SEVENTH. As additional and collateral security for the payment of the said note the mortgagors hereby assign to said mortgagee, its successors and assigns, all the rights, rents, royalties and benefits accruing to the parties of the first part under all oil, gas or mineral leases on said premises, this assignment to terminate and become void upon release of this mortgage. Provided, however, that said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, shall be chargeable with no responsibility with reference to such rights, rents, royalties and benefits nor be accountable therefor except as to sums actually collected by it or them, and that the lessees in any such leases shall account for such rights, rents, royalties or benefits to the party of the first part or his assigns until notified by legal holder hereof to account for and to pay over the same to such legal holder. Should operation under any oil, gas or mineral lease seriously depreciate the value of said land for general farming purposes, the note secured by this mortgage shall immediately become due and collectible, at the option of the holder of this mortgage without notice.

EIGHTH. That if such payments be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void; but if the note herein described, or any part of the indebtedness secured by this Mortgage or any interest thereon, be not paid when due, or if default be made in any covenant or agreement herein contained, then this conveyance shall become absolute and the whole of said principal note shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part, and no failure of the party of the second part
