

referred to in Section 83 shall occur by reason of any default on the part of the Company;

then, and in every such case, if such default or defaults shall not have been remedied, the New York Trustee may, and upon the written request of the holders of at least 25% in amount of the Bonds then outstanding, shall, by notice in writing to the Company, declare the principal of and interest on all the Bonds then outstanding to be due and payable immediately, and upon any such declaration the same shall become immediately due and payable, anything in this Indenture or in the Bonds contained to the contrary notwithstanding. This provision is subject, however, to the condition that if, at any time after such declaration, but before any sale of the Trust Estate, or any part thereof, shall have been made under this Article, all overdue installments of interest upon all the Bonds, with interest on overdue installments of interest at the rate of 6% per annum; together with all sums paid or advanced by the Trustees or either of them under any provision hereof and the reasonable and proper charges, expenses and liabilities of the Trustees, or either of them, their agents, attorneys and counsel, and all other sums payable by the Company hereunder, except the principal of, and interest accrued since the next preceding interest date on, the Bonds due and payable solely by virtue of such declaration, shall either be paid by or for the account of the Company or provision satisfactory to the New York Trustee shall be made for such payment, and all Events of Default hereunder shall be remedied, then, and in every such case, the holders of at least a majority in amount of the Bonds then outstanding, by written notice to the Company and to the New York Trustee, may rescind and annul such declaration in its entirety; but no such action shall extend to or affect any subsequent default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 106. In case one or more of the Events of Default shall happen and shall not have been remedied, then, and in every such case, the Trustees, or either of them, personally
