

for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation, regularly published in the English language in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York.

"SECTION 166. In case by reason of the temporary or permanent suspension of publication of any newspaper, or by reason of any other cause, it shall be impossible to make or continue publication of any notice required by this Indenture in any newspaper or newspapers as in this Indenture provided, then such publication in lieu thereof as shall be determined by the Company as reasonable under the circumstances and as shall not be deemed objectionable by the New York Trustee (or if such notice is to be given by the Trustees, or either of them, as shall be determined by the New York Trustee as reasonable under the circumstances), shall constitute a sufficient publication of such notice. Such publication shall, so far as may be, approximate the terms and conditions of the publication in lieu of which it is given.

"SECTION 167. The same officer or officers of the Company, or the same engineer or counsel or other person, as the case may be, may, but need not, certify to or state all the matters required to be certified under the provisions of any Article, Section, subdivision or other portion hereof, but different officers, engineers, counsel or other persons may certify to or state different facts or matters, respectively.

Where any person or persons are required to make, give or execute two or more orders, requests, certificates, opinions or other instruments under this Indenture, any such orders, requests, certificates, opinions or other instruments may, but need not, be consolidated and form one instrument."
