

Either of the Trustees or any successor trustee may be removed with or without cause at any time by the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds by the delivery to such Trustee or successor trustee, as the case may be, of an instrument or concurrent instruments signed by such holders or their attorneys-in-fact duly authorized. Any trustee who shall resign or be so removed shall be entitled to its reasonable compensation then accrued and unpaid and to reimbursement for proper expenses theretofore incurred and not previously reimbursed.

The Corporate Trustee shall have the power at any time, by instrument in writing duly executed by its President or Vice President under its corporate seal, to remove the Individual Trustee from his position as one of the Trustees hereunder.

SECTION 12. In case at any time either Trustee or any successor trustee shall resign or shall be removed or shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or if a receiver of the Corporate Trustee or any successor, or of its property, shall be appointed, or if any public officer in the exercise of his official powers shall take charge or control of the Corporate Trustee or any successor, or its property or affairs, or if a vacancy shall arise in the trusteeship under the Mortgage from any cause, a successor trustee or successor trustees may be appointed by the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds, by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing signed and acknowledged by such holders or their attorneys-in-fact duly authorized and delivered to such new trustee hereunder, notification being given to the Company and the predecessor trustee; provided, however, (1) that until a new Corporate Trustee shall be appointed by the holders of Outstanding Bonds as aforesaid and shall accept such appointment, the Company,

If in a proper case no appointment of a successor trustee shall be made by the holders of Outstanding Bonds pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 12 within six months after the happening of any of the events set forth in the first paragraph of this Section 12, the holder of any Bond outstanding hereunder or any retiring trustee hereunder may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction to appoint a successor trustee. Said court may thereupon, after such notice, if any, as said court may deem proper and prescribe, appoint a successor trustee. Any trustee appointed by the Company shall, immediately and without further act, be superseded by a trustee appointed by any such court in the manner above provided, if such appointment by such court be made within 18 months after the first publication of the notice of the appointment of the new trustee by the Company. If application shall be made to any such court within such 18 months' period in this paragraph provided, the holders of Outstanding Bonds shall have no power to appoint a trustee as in this Section 12 provided unless such application shall be dismissed within one year after the first publication of the notice of the appointment of a new trustee by the Company.

Any successor trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the predecessor trustee hereunder and to the Company an instrument in writing accepting such appointment hereunder, and thereupon said successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the estates, properties, rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of its predecessor in trust hereunder, with like effect as if originally named as trustee herein; but the retiring trustee, nevertheless, on the written request of the Company or of the successor trustee, and upon payment of its unpaid compensation and expenses, if any, shall by an instrument duly executed and acknowledged by its proper officers, by authority of its Board of Directors, shall appoint a Corporate Trustee to fill the vacancy until the appointment of a new Corporate Trustee by such holders as herein authorized, and (ii) until a new Individual Trustee shall be appointed by the holders of Outstanding Bonds as aforesaid and shall accept such appointment, the Corporate Trustee, by an instrument duly executed and acknowledged by its President or Vice President under its corporate seal, shall appoint an Individual Trustee to fill the vacancy until the appointment of a new Individual Trustee by such holders as herein authorized. The Company shall publish notice of any such appointment made by it or by the Corporate Trustee or by the holders of Outstanding Bonds as aforesaid once each week for two successive weeks in a Daily Newspaper in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois, and in a Daily Newspaper in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, the first publication in each such Daily Newspaper to be within 10 days after such appointment has been made. Any new trustee appointed by the Company or by the Corporate Trustee shall, immediately and without further act, be superseded by a trustee appointed by the holders of Outstanding Bonds in the manner above provided if the appointment by such holders be made within one year after the first publication of the notice of the appointment of the new trustee by the Company.

Every Corporate Trustee appointed under any of the provisions of this Section 12 shall be a trust company or a banking corporation in good standing organized under the laws of the United States or of any State, having an office in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois, or in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, and having a capital and surplus aggregating at least $5,000,000, and every Individual Trustee appointed under any provision of this Section 12 shall be a citizen of the State of Missouri.
