(i) If the principal of none of the Outstanding Bonds shall have become due and be unpaid, to the payment of the interest on the Outstanding Bonds, in the order of the maturity of the installments of such interest, such payments to be made proportionately to the persons entitled thereto without discrimination or preference.

(ii) If the principal of all or any part of the Bonds shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, and shall be unpaid, first, to the payment of interest accrued on the Outstanding Bonds prior to the date upon which the principal of said Bonds became due and payable, in the order of the maturity of the installments of such interest, and second, to the payment of interest on the overdue principal of said Bonds at the highest rate of interest borne by any of the Outstanding Bonds, and third (subject to the provisions of Section 4 of this Article XIV), to the payment of the principal of all of said Bonds, whether due or not; in every instance such payments to be made proportionately to the persons entitled thereto without discrimination or preference.

These provisions, however, are not intended to and shall not be deemed in any wise to modify the provisions of Section 1 of this Article XIV but are subject thereto.

This provision, however, is subject to the condition that, if at any time after the principal of the Bonds shall have been so declared due and payable and before any judgment or decree for the payment of the moneys due shall have been obtained or entered as hereinafter provided or any sale of the mortgaged property or any part thereof shall have been made, all unpaid interest upon all Outstanding Bonds, and the principal (and premium, if any) of any Outstanding Bonds which shall have
