part Y of the second part.

Witnesseth, that the said part 168 of the first part, in consideration of the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars and no/100 DOLLARS with the appurtenances and all the estate, title and interest of the said part 168 of the first part therein.

And the said part 168 of the first part do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances, and that they warrant and defend the same against all parties making lawful claim thereto. It is agreed between the parties hereto that the part 168 of the first part shall at all times during the life of this indenture, pay all taxes or assessments that may be levied or assessed against said real estate when the same becomes due and payable, and that they will keep the buildings upon said real estate insured against fire and tornado in such sum and by such insurance company as shall be specified and directed by the part Y of the second part, the loss, if any, made payable to the said part Y of the second part to the extent of 10% interest. And this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as herein specified, and the obligation contained therein fully discharged. If default be made in such payments or any part thereof or any obligation created thereby, or interest thereon, or if the taxes on said real estate are not paid when the same become due and payable, or if the insurance is not kept up, as provided herein, or if the buildings on said real estate are not kept in as good repair as they are now, or if waste is committed on said premises, then the conveyance shall become absolute and the whole or remaining undischarged part of the obligation, and all the improvements thereon, shall immediately become and become due and payable at the option of the holder hereof, without notice, and it shall be lawful for the said part Y of the second part, to enter upon the said premises and to take possession of the said premises and all the improvements thereon in the manner provided by law and to have a receiver appointed to collect the rents and benefits accruing therefrom and to sell the premises hereby granted, any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of all moneys arising from such sale to retain the amount then unpaid of principal and interest, together with all costs and charges incident thereto, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the part Y of the second part, making full satisfaction to the first part 168.

It is agreed that the covenants and other terms and provisions of this indenture and each and every obligation therein contained, and all benefits accruing therefrom, shall extend and inure to, and be obligatory upon the heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, assigns and successors of the respective parties hereto.
