Witnesseth, that the said parties of the first part, in consideration of the sum of

with the appurtenances and all the estate, title and interest of the said parties of the first part therein.

And the said party of the first part do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owners of the premises above granted, and, subject to a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances.

And that they will warrant and defend the same against all parties making lawful claim thereto.

It is agreed between the parties hereto that the party of the first part shall at all times during the life of this indenture, pay all taxes or assessments that may be levied or assessed against said real estate when the same becomes due and payable, and that Elmer F. Hartman keep the buildings upon said real estate insured against fire and tornado in such sum and by such insurance company as may be specified and directed by the party of the second part, and the cost of any, made payable to the party of the second part, the attorney fees and expenses of the party of the second part. And if the party of the first part shall fail to pay any taxes or the same become due and payable, to keep said premises insured as herein provided, then the party of the second part may pay the same in its discretion, or either, and the amount so paid shall become a part of the indebtedness, secured by this indenture, and shall bear interest at the rate of 10% from the date of payment until fully repaid.

THIS GRANT is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of TWO Thousand and no/100 DOLLARS, according to the terms of one certain written obligation for the payment of said sum of money, executed on the 15th day of November 1950, by Elmer F. Hartman, and by Madeline E. Hartman, terms made payable to the party of the second part, with all interest accruing thereon according to the terms of said obligation and also to secure any sum or sums of money advanced by the said party of the second part to pay for any insurance or to discharge any taxes with interest thereon as herein provided, in the event that the party of the first part shall fail to pay the same as provided in this indenture.

And this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as herein specified, and the obligation contained therein fully discharged: If default be made in such payments or any part thereof or any obligation created thereby, or interest thereon, or if default on said real estate is not paid when the same becomes due and payable, or if such insurance is not kept up, as provided herein, or if taxes or other assessments levied against said real estate are now, or if taxes or other assessments are now levied against said real estate, and the whole sum remaining unpaid, and all of the obligations contained in this written obligation, for the security of which this indenture is given, shall immediately mature and become due and payable at the option of the holder hereof, without notice, and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part to take possession of the said premises, and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part to collect the rents and benefits arising therefrom; and to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of all moneys arising from the sale to pay the amount thus unpaid of principal and interest together with costs and charges incident thereto, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party of the second part to the party of the first part.

It is agreed by the parties hereto that the terms and provisions of this indenture and each and every obligation therein contained, and all benefits accruing therefrom, shall extend and run to, and be obligatory upon the heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, assigns and successors of the respective parties hereto.
