

11. That in the event ownership of the mortgaged premises or any part thereof becomes vested in a person or persons other than the Party of the First Part, the Company may, without notice to the Party of the First Part, deal with such successor or successors in interest with reference to this mortgage and the note hereby secured, either by way of foreclosure on the part of the Company or extension of the time of payment of the debt or any sum hereby secured, without in any way releasing, discharging, or the note hereby secured, either in whole or in part.

12. That if default be made in the payment of said note or any part thereof or of any installment due in accordance with the terms thereof, either of principal or of interest, or in the performance of any of the covenants, agreements or conditions herein contained, time and the exact performance of each and all of First Party's covenants and obligations hereunder being material principal sum remaining at that time undischarged together with all interest accrued thereon, shall, at the election of the said Company or of the legal holder or holders of said note, and without notice of such election, at once become due and be due and thereupon the said Company or the legal holder or holders of said note shall have the right to immediately foreclose this mortgage and shall have all other rights and remedies that the law and equity provide, and, in case of foreclosure, the judgment rendered shall provide that the whole of said premises be sold together and not in parcels.

13. That in any and every suit brought to foreclose this mortgage, the sum expended by the said Company in having the abstract of title to said premises continued to date shall be secured hereby and included in any decree of foreclosure. In every foreclosure suit the Court, upon application by the said Company, shall appoint a receiver for the land and premises above described and mortgaged, with power to enter upon, cultivate and operate said premises and collect the rents, issues and profits therefrom, and apply the same as the Court may direct, with the usual powers of receivers in such cases.

Provided Always that whenever said Party of the First Part shall have fully paid the indebtedness hereby secured, with all the interest thereon, and shall have well and truly performed all and singular the covenants and agreements hereinabove expressed, then all such covenants and agreements shall cease and determine, but not otherwise, and said Party of the First Part shall be entitled to a satisfaction of this mortgage.

In Witness Whereof, the said Party of the First Part has hereunto set their hand at the day and year first above written.
