AGREEMENT: You have signed a Loan Agreement on the date shown above and given a security interest in personal property. This form is incorporated by reference into the Loan Agreement. You are listing below an individual itemization and your estimate of the actual value of the personal property ("property") that secures your loan. For insurance purposes only, you are also asked to provide your estimate of the replacement value of all of your personal property in which you have given a security interest. Replacement value means the cost of new, substitute property of the same kind and quality.
